Day 4 – National Elk Refuge – Grand Teton National Park -- Jackson

Enjoy a beautiful winter day with incredible views of the rugged Teton

Mountains as you travel from West Yellowstone to the fun western town of Jackson. You will begin with a few photo stops overlooking the Snake River for views of the snow-covered Tetons. Once finished you will have some free time for lunch on your own as you explore the historic western town of Jackson, WY. Just a couple miles north of Jackson is the National Elk Refuge, winter home for thousands of these majestic animals. Get a close-up view as you take a horse drawn sleigh ride right into the massive herd on the Elk Refuge. Your sleigh driver and guide will explain how the settling the Jackson Valley affected the elk herd winter migration and why the refuge now plays an important role in their survival. Return to Jackson with the rest of the evening free to explore the many restaurants, shops and art galleries on your own.

Lodging – Elk Country Inn, Jackson, WY (B)

Day 5 – Utah Olympic Park – Salt Lake City

Depart Jackson this morning and travel through western Wyoming surrounded by silver streams, soaring peaks, and lush meadows. Drive through the rugged Snake River Canyon, stopping in Starr Valley. Arrive in Evanston for lunch on your own. Next arrive at Utah Olympic Park. Enjoy a guided tour of this amazing facility that hosted events for the 2002 Winter Olympic Games and continues to host World Cup events. Many of the guides are winter Olympians in training. You will see the Utah Ski and Olympic Museum, three Nordic Jumps along with the Bobsled and Luge Track, which has some of the fastest ice on earth. In the late afternoon, return to Salt Lake City for one final night. This evening, join the group for a farewell dinner at a local restaurant. Lodging – Sheraton, Salt Lake City, UT (B,D)
