

Mississippi River Cities, MN & WI Day Trip

Arrive at the meeting point, get on our coach, and sit back and enjoy the scenic ride down Hwy 61 to historic Wabasha. Upon arrival, we get up close and personal with a live bird of prey at the National Eagle Center. Have time to enjoy a walk on the promenade and a beverage and photo at Slippery's Bar, famous for the "Grumpy Old Men" movies. Next we cross the bridge into Wisconsin, and make our way to Alma for an inspiring stop at Buena Vista Park to look back at Minnesota. After shopping time, we stop in Stockholm to visit the Museum of Laura

Ingalls Wilder, an American writer, well known for the children's series "Little House on the Prairie." Before departing town, consider a stop at the famous Pie & General Store to bring home a slice of mouthwatering Apple or fruit pie, Chocolate Silk pie, or Ooey Goey Turtle pie. We drive the short distance to Laura's 1867 log cabin replica in the woods. Our final stop of the day is at the Pickle Factory in Pepin for a stunning view and delicious dinner. We'll have much to discuss on the route back home!
