Day 1: Thursday, September 18, 2025 • Depart
Our adventure starts today as we depart the USA on our scheduled flight to Athens, Greece.

Day 2: Friday, September 19, 2025 • Athens
Upon our arrival in Athens, we meet our local tour manager and coach driver and transfer into the city center of Athens. A short walk takes us to the New Acropolis Museum, built in 2009 at the bottom of the Acropolis. Our tour of the museum introduces us to Greek culture, mythology, politics and religion. Time permitting, we stroll through the Plaka, the old, historical neighborhood of Athens, where we enjoy the sights and sounds of this ancient city. Dinner is at our hotel tonight. D

Day 3: Saturday, September 20, 2025 • Athens
After breakfast this morning, we transfer to the Acropolis, where our tour manager introduces us to the Parthenon, the Propylaea, the Erechtheion and the temple of Athena Nike, iconic landmarks of Athens' skyline. We continue our exploration of the Greek capital on a panoramic city tour that brings us past the Temple of Zeus, the Panathenian Stadium, Syntagma (Constitution) Square and the Roman Agora. We have free time this afternoon to explore more of the museums, markets, and shopping on the Plaka and Monastiraki Square. We return to our hotel for dinner. B/D

Day 4: Sunday, September 21, 2025 • Athens
After breakfast, we depart for the half day tour to Corinth with time for lunch on our own in a local restaurant. This afternoon, we return to Athens with time free until dinner. B/D

Day 5: Monday, September 22, 2025 • Napflion
This morning we head west, stopping at the stunning Corinth Canal, an engineering marvel that connects the Aegean Sea to the Ionian Sea. Our day continues with a visit to see the ruins of the palace Mycenae and the Tomb of Clytemnestra. After time for lunch on our own in the nearby town of Mykines, we drive to Epidavros, whose famous 4th-century BC theatre has near perfect acoustics. Our destination is the resort town of Navplio with its well-preserved old town. There is an opportunity to "volta" (take a stroll) along the cobblestone streets with the locals this evening. B/D

Day 6: Tuesday, September 23, 2025 • Ancient Olympia
We continue to the Peloponnese Peninsula to Sparta, a once powerful city-state that often clashed with Athens for power in Ancient Greece. Upon our arrival, we visit the Museum of Olives and Greek Olive Oil, where we learn more about two of Greece's most famous agricultural products. We enjoy a sampling of olives and olive oil from the Kalamata region before continuing to Ancient Olympia. B/D

Day 7: Wednesday, September 24, 2025 • Delphi
After breakfast this morning, we visit the ruins of Ancient Olympia, home of the first Olympic Games. Our walk takes us to where the early athletes trained and competed, as well as to the site where the Olympic flame is still lit prior to the Summer and Winter Olympic Games. Nearby, we visit the Archaeological Museum of Olympia and see artifacts recovered from the site. After lunch on our own, we drive across the impressive Charilaos Trikoupi Bridge, which spans the Gulf of Corinth, to return to the Greek mainland. Dinner and overnight in Delphi. B/D

Day 8: Thursday, September 25, 2025 • Delphi
Today we explore Delphi, a religious site that the Ancient Greeks considered the center of the world. Our tour includes the Sanctuary of Apollo, the Athenian Treasury and the Delphi Museum, with its most famous resident: a bronze charioteer from 470 BC. We also visit nearby Arachova, a village on the southern slope of Mount Parnassos. B/D

Day 9: Friday, September 26, 2025 • Aegean Sea Cruise
We depart early to board a cruise ship, our home for the next three nights as we cruise to some of the most famous islands in the Aegean Sea. We enjoy the passing scenery from the deck before we dock at Mykonos, a picture-perfect island of windmills, whitewashed houses and blue-domed churches. A shuttle bus takes us from the cruise dock to the harbor area, where we have free time to explore the streets and shops of this island paradise. B/L/D

Day 10: Saturday, September 27, 2025 • Aegean Sea Cruise
We dock at Kusadasi, Turkey, and depart after breakfast for our excursion to Ephesus. Our local guide takes us back thousands of years to when Ephesus was a major trading center on the Mediterranean and one of the twelve cities of the Ionian League. The Temple of Artemis that once stood here is considered to be one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. Our visit to Turkey ends with a short stroll through the Bazaar, where if timing permits, we can bargain for leather, jewelry and other souvenirs. This afternoon, we stop at the island of Patmos and take tender boats to the harbor. The optional shore excursion in Patmos is a tour of St. John's Monastery and the Grotto of the Apocalypse. Steep stone stairs lead from the chapel of St. Anne to the cave where it is said St. John received his visions from Christ that he recorded in the Book of Revelation. B/L/D

Day 11: Sunday, September 28, 2025 • Aegean Sea Cruise

Our day begins as we tour the Minoan palace of Knossos on the island of Crete. Considered the first advanced civilization of Europe, the Minoans were merchants who traded with Ancient Egypt and Mycenae on the mainland of Greece. The palace is known for its many restored frescoes and the mythological site where the half man/half bull Minotaur was imprisoned. We return to our ship and have lunch while cruising northward to the island of Santorini. With whitewashed villages clinging to volcanic cliffs, this island's harbor is one of the most dramatic in Greece. We visit Oia, Santorini's most beautiful and picturesque village, before returning to our ship for our final sunset on board. B/L/D

Day 12: Monday, September 29, 2025 • Athens

We disembark our ship at Piraeus port and depart for Cape Sounion, located south of Athens. At the southernmost tip of the peninsula, surrounded on three sides by the Aegean Sea, are the ruins of the Temple of Poseidon, the Greek god of the sea. The English poet Lord Byron felt compelled to carve his name into the base of one of the columns, still visible 150 years later. In the early afternoon, we visit a local winery for a guided tasting of Greek wine. This evening, we celebrate our Greek odyssey with our farewell dinner at a taverna. Here we enjoy traditional Greek food, as local musicians perform songs and dances from various regions of Greece. B/D

Day 13: Tuesday, September 30, 2025 • Return

Sadly, we say "Yiasou!" ("Goodbye!") to Greece as we transfer to the Athens International Airport for our return flight to the United States. We take with us memories of ancient cities, new friends, fascinating legends and spectacular scenery. B
