Lynn and I would be deeply honored to have you join us on a truly life-changing journey to the Holy Land. There are few moments in life that transform faith the way this journey does—walking the very ground where Jesus lived, taught, prayed, and poured out His love for us all. When Scripture unfolds right before your eyes, in the very places where HIS-Story became our story, your heart can't help but be moved. Suddenly the Word feels closer, richer, and more alive than ever before.

Standing on the Mount of Olives at sunrise... sailing quietly across the Sea of Galilee... walking through the ancient streets of Jerusalem—these are experiences that open something deep within us. They create space for God to speak, to comfort, to renew, and to draw us closer to Him in ways that simply cannot be experienced anywhere else.

We've seen how this journey strengthens weary hearts, encourages growing faith, and inspires a deeper love for Christ. Along the way, there will be moments of worship, reflection, laughter, fellowship, and discovery—holy moments that meet you right where you are and stay with you long after you return home.

It is our sincere prayer that this trip deepens your faith, brings Scripture to life in powerful and personal ways, and becomes a treasured milestone in your walk with the Lord. We would be grateful and blessed to share this experience with you.
